A Little Bit About Yourself

My name is Louise and I'm the girl behind fashion and beauty blog "The Real Elle Woods"! Just like the character "Elle Woods" from the film "Legally Blonde" I'm a law graduate who has always been obsessed with fashion and beauty, which lead me to start my blog back in 2012! For me everyday is a catwalk moment, and I love having fun with fashion and expressing myself through my personal style! I also have a passion for photography, food, films and a little designer arm candy too in the form of my ever growing designer handbag collection!

Why did you start Blogging?

After many years of attending beauty events and catwalk shows, I decided to take the leap into the world of blogging in 2012, starting "The Real Elle Woods" which has brought with it many adventures and experiences I will never forget! Through my blog and YouTube channel I love to share my stylish adventures with my readers, giving them a glimpse into the glamorous world of fashion and beauty. I love connecting with my followers, sharing my infectious love of beauty and style, and encouraging others to take a leap into experimenting with their looks!

Your Best Beauty Tip

My top beauty tip is to take care of your skin! It might seem obvious but if your skin is in good condition, your make up will always look so much better! So drink plenty of water, make sure to take your make up off every night, and try to pamper your skin as much as you can. Wearing an SPF everyday is a must, and I'm currently obsessed with clay masks which have made such a difference to the condition and radiance of my skin!

Your Top Tan Tip

I'm probably best known for my white porcelain skin, but for anyone wanting to embrace the sun kissed look my top tip is to regularly exfoliate your skin. I personally love sugar scrubs, as not only do they leave your skin super soft, they will help eliminate dry spots which can cause a tan to look blotchy and uneven!
